The possibilities of Lego are endless. Millions of children, architects, artists, designers and other enthusiasts the world over have developed their talents through Lego. Some of the results are on display in Das ist ein Hund, in De Kabinetten van de Vleeshal. Das ist ein Hund does not distinguish art from dilettantism. The main aim of the exhibition is to showcase how Lego becomes putty in the hands of those it inspires.

LEGO is in essentie een systeem met ontelbare mogelijkheden. Het heeft wereldwijd vele miljoenen kinderen, architecten, kunstenaars, vormgevers en andere liefhebbers de gelegenheid gegeven zich te ontplooiën. De tentoonstelling Das ist ein Hund in De Kabinetten van De Vleeshal toont hiervan het resultaat. Een onderscheid tussen kunst en hobbyïsme wordt hierbij niet gemaakt. Das ist ein Hund wil vooral laten zien waartoe LEGO mensen geïnspireerd heeft en hoe zij het systeem naar hun hand hebben weten te zetten.
